

Beth N. Lawson - Of Counsel

Email: bnlowson@darroweverett.com

Phone: \(212\) 335-2090335-2090)

Bio

Beth N. Lawson is Of Counsel and a Practice Leader for DarrowEverett's Regulatory & Compliance, and Private Equity, Capital Markets & Securities Practice Groups, focusing primarily on corporate and securities law. Beth's clients are in the investment management and financial services sectors and include publicly traded and private companies, hedge funds and other private funds, SEC and state-registered investment advisors, broker-dealers, and private investors. Beth regularly advises clients concerning SEC reporting and compliance, corporate formation and structuring and regulatory compliance, with federal and state securities laws and regulations.

Practice Areas

- Private Equity, Capital Markets, and Securities
- Healthcare & Life Sciences

Prior Experience

Prior to joining the DarrowEverett team, Beth served as Senior Securities Counsel for a New York securities law firm specializing in corporate transactions, securities law compliance, broker-dealer, and investment advisory regulation, and as a Partner at a boutique New York corporate and securities firm specializing in private offerings, entity formation and compliance, and business contracts. In addition, Beth previously served as Vice President and SEC regulatory counsel in the legal department of a large international insurance company, and also served as a senior associate at a large New York law firm where she focused on public securities offerings. While at the University of Pennsylvania Law School, Beth was the Associate editor of the Journal of International Business Law.

Insights

- Using an Unregistered Broker-Dealer for Capital Raising is a Risky Proposition - via JD Supra, June, 2022

Bar Admissions

- New York

Education

- University of Pennsylvania Law School – J.D
- Brandeis University, B.A., Economics
cum laude